Wighton Village Hall Trustees have a zero-tolerance approach to abuse.

All reasonable action should be taken to protect everyone from risk, this includes all those known to be vulnerable, children, young people and adults at risk of abuse, exploitation, radicalisation, and mistreatment. All citizens of the United Kingdom have their rights enshrined within the Human Rights Act 1998. People who are eligible to receive health and community care services may be additionally vulnerable to the violation of these rights by reason of disability, impairment, age, or illness.

Wighton Village Hall trustees recognise that under the Care Act 2014 updated 2015 it has a duty of care and protection of adults who are at risk of abuse. They also recognise their responsibilities for the safety and care of children under the Children Act 1989 and 2004 i.e.

- protecting children from maltreatment
- preventing impairment of children's health and development
- ensuring that children grow up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care
- taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes.
